"Terms and Conditions"

The terms and conditions set out in this document.

"Third Party Manufacturer"

A third party which manufactures or supplies Items or parts, materials or equipment incorporated into Goods or Products.

2. Basis of Sale, Quotations, Orders and Specification

- 2.1 The Company shall sell and the Purchaser shall purchase the Goods, Products and/or Items (as the case may be) in accordance with any order that is accepted by the Company subject to the Terms and Conditions which shall govern the Contract to the exclusion of any other terms and conditions subject to which any such order is made or purported to be made by the Purchaser. Any terms and conditions of the Purchaser included or referred to in any order, or any proposed variation to this Agreement set out in any order, will not be binding on the Company.

- 2.2 Any deviation from the Terms and Conditions can have effect only after such deviation has been expressly agreed and verified by the signature of an authorised Director of the Company.
- 2.3 Any quotations issued by the Company are to be regarded by the Purchaser as an enticement in soliciting an offer to purchase from the Purchaser in the form of an order. All quotations may be withdrawn or varied by the Company at any time and in any event shall automatically expire after 28 days unless expressly stated otherwise on the relevant written quotation. All orders issued by the Purchaser to the Company will thereby be deemed to represent an offer to purchase. The Purchaser shall be responsible for ensuring the accuracy of the terms of any order (including any required specification). The quantity, quality, description and any specification shall be those set out in the Purchaser's order. Deliveries to destinations outside the United Kingdom and Northern Ireland will be subject to the application of "Incoterms 2010" (as amended or replaced from time to time and published by the International Chamber of Commerce) as shall be more particularly defined in the quotation, unless otherwise agreed in writing. Subject to clause 2.4 the Purchaser's order shall only be deemed to be accepted when the Company issues a written acceptance of the order at which point the Contract shall come into existence.
- 2.4 Orders may be submitted by the Purchaser by telephone, fax or e-mail but in the case of orders submitted by telephone must be confirmed in writing immediately following the telephoned order. The Company shall be under no obligation to despatch any Goods, Products or Items until such written confirmation is received; however if it does despatch any such Goods, Products or Items in accordance with an oral order for which written confirmation has not yet been received the Company's record of such orally submitted order shall form the basis of the order. The Company shall use reasonable endeavours to take accurate records of a Purchaser's oral order.
- 2.5 No offer accepted by the Company may be cancelled by the Purchaser except with the prior written consent of the Company and on terms that the Purchaser shall indemnify the Company in full against all losses (including loss of profit) incurred by the Company as a result of such cancellation.
- 2.6 Each order for Goods, Products and/or Items accepted by the Company shall constitute a separate Contract. The Company reserves the right to amend the specification of the Goods, Products and/or Items the subject of the Contract if required by any applicable statutory or regulatory requirements.
- 2.7 Any variations in the quantity of the Goods delivered of plus or minus 10% or less shall be deemed to satisfy the order.
- 2.8 Special arrangements must be made where precise quantities are required by the Buyer.
- 2.9 Rejection by the Company of an Order, including any communication that may accompany such rejection, will not constitute a counter-offer capable of acceptance by the Purchaser.

2.10 Marketing and other promotional material relating to the Goods including Data Sheets are illustrative only and do not form part of the Contract. The Purchaser agrees that, in submitting an order, it has not relied on any representations or statements by the Company other than those expressly set out in these Terms and Conditions.

3. Warranties, Representations, Liability and Remedies

3.1 The Company's employees or agents are not authorised to make any representations concerning the Goods, Products and/or Items unless confirmed by the Company in writing by a Director of the Company.

3.2 Any advice or recommendation given by the Company or its employees or agents to the Purchaser or its employees or agents as to the storage, application or use of the Goods, Products and/or Items which is not confirmed in writing by the Company is followed or acted upon entirely at the Purchaser's own risk and, accordingly, the Company shall not be liable for any such advice or recommendation which is not so confirmed.

3.3 The Purchaser acknowledges that it has entered into the Contract in reliance only on the representations, warranties, promises and terms contained or expressly referred to in the Contract and, save as expressly set out in the Contract, the Company shall have no liability in respect of any other representation, warranty or promise made prior to the date of the Contract unless it was made fraudulently.

3.4 The only remedy available in respect of any misrepresentation or untrue statement made by the Company (other than those made fraudulently) shall be a claim for damages for breach of contract under the Contract and, to the extent that any such representation or statement is not contained or expressly referred to in the Contract, then it shall be deemed to be contained or expressly referred to for the purpose of applying this provision.

3.5 The Purchaser shall inform the Company of any Default and afford it reasonable opportunity to correct the Default.

3.6 The Company warrants that for a period of 12 months from delivery the mechanical properties of the Goods shall conform in all material respects with the Specification. Where no Specification is given the Company warrants that the Goods, Products and/or Items shall be free from material defects in material and workmanship at the time of delivery to the Purchaser provided that the Company shall be under no liability for any failure of the Goods, Products and/or Items to comply with this warranty in any of the following events:

(a) in respect of any defect in the Goods, Products or Items arising from any drawing, design or Specification supplied by the Purchaser; or

(b) for Items or parts, materials or equipment (incorporated into Goods or Products or otherwise) provided by a Third Party Manufacturer, and the Purchaser shall only be entitled to the benefit of any such warranty or guarantee as is given by the Third Party Manufacturer to the Company and which the Company is entitled by such Third Party Manufacturer to pass on to the Purchaser; or

(c) In respect of any defect in the Goods, Products or Items arising from any processes carried out by the Purchaser; or

- (d) where such failure arises by reason of wear and tear, wilful damage, negligence or where it could be expected to arise in the normal course of use of the Goods, Products or Items; or
 - (e) to the extent caused by the Purchaser's failure to comply with the Company's written instructions in relation to the Goods, Products and Items including any instructions on installation, operation, storage or maintenance; or
 - (f) where the Purchaser modifies any Goods, Products or Items without the Company's prior written consent or, having received such consent, not in accordance with the Company's instructions; or
 - (g) Where the Customer changes the design or specification or usage of any end product from that notified to the Company in any PPAP; or
 - (h) where the Purchaser uses any of the Goods, Products or Items after notifying the Company of a Default or defect.
- 3.7 Provided that the Company is notified in accordance with clause 3.8 and subject to clause 3.6 any Goods and/or Products that to the satisfaction of the Company prove to be faulty at the time of delivery will be repaired or replaced free of charge by the Company. Goods and/or Products that the Company agrees to replace must, at the sole discretion of the Company, be returned to the Company or disposed of as per the Company's instructions. Defective Items will be replaced or repaired only with the consent of the Third Party Manufacturer or to the extent the defect falls within any warranty or guarantee referred to in clause 3.6(b) above.
- 3.8 Notification of any defects as would be reasonably apparent from a visual inspection by a prudent purchaser to the Goods/Products and/or Items, must be received by the Company at the office to which the order for the defective product was submitted within five (5) days of delivery of the defective Goods, Products or Items to the Purchaser. The Company will not be liable for the Goods/Products and/or Items failure to comply with the warranty set out in clause 3.6 where the Purchaser makes any further use of such Goods/Products and/or Items after giving notice in accordance with this clause 3.8.
- 3.9 Failure to notify the Company of defects in accordance with clauses 3.8 shall preclude the Company from having any liability in respect of the Goods, Products or Items for defects which would be reasonably apparent to a prudent purchaser and the Purchaser shall be bound to pay the price as if the Goods, Products or Items had been delivered in accordance with the Contract.
- 3.10 In relation to any Default the Company will accept unlimited liability for:
- (a) death or personal injury caused by the negligence of the Company or its employees, agents or sub-contractors (as applicable);
 - (b) fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation;
 - (c) any breach of its obligations implied by Section 12, Sale of Goods Act 1979 or Section 2, Supply of Goods and Services Act 1982; and

- (d) anything else for which the Company cannot at law limit or exclude its liability.
- 3.11 The Company will accept liability for physical damage to the Purchaser's tangible property resulting from the negligence and wilful default of the Company. The Company's liability under this clause including both damage to the Purchaser's property and the Products, Goods or Items shall be limited to an amount equal to the price of the Products, Goods or Items the subject of the Contract. Further and in any event the maximum liability of the Company for a Product (where the defect is attributable to a component supplied by a Third Party Manufacturer) or Item under this sub clause 3.11 shall be limited to that which the Company can recover from the relevant third party manufacturer.
- 3.12 Except as provided in sub-clause 3.10 the Company will not be liable for the following losses or damage arising directly or indirectly out of any Default or otherwise and even if foreseeable by the Company:
- (a) economic loss including administrative and overhead costs,
 - (b) any indirect or consequential loss,
 - (c) loss of profits,
 - (d) loss of business,
 - (e) loss of contracts,
 - (f) loss of revenues,
 - (g) loss of goodwill,
 - (h) loss of production,
 - (i) loss of savings, discounts of rebates of every description (whether actual or anticipated);
 - (j) loss of use;
 - (k) loss of production;
 - (l) loss of opportunity;
 - (m) loss of savings, discount or rebate (whether actual or anticipated);
 - (n) harm to reputation.
 - (o) loss of data: or
 - (p) loss or damage arising from the Purchaser's failure to fulfil its responsibilities in connection with the Contract.
- 3.13 Except for the liabilities accepted by the Company under sub-clauses 3.7, 3.10 and 3.11 the Company's entire liability in respect of all Defaults shall be limited to the price of the Products, Goods or Items the subject of the Contract.
- 3.14 Except as set out in this clause 3 the Company gives no warranty and makes no representations in relation to the Goods, Products or Items and shall have no liability for their failure to comply with the warranty in clause 3.6 and all warranties and conditions (including the conditions implied by ss 13–15 of the Sale of Goods Act 1979), whether express or implied by statute, common law or otherwise are excluded to the extent permitted.
- 3.16 The provisions of these Terms and Conditions including the warranties set out in clause 3.6, shall apply to any Goods, Products or Items that are repaired or replaced with effect from delivery of the repaired or replaced Goods, Products or Items.
- 3.15 Clause 3 of these Terms and Conditions shall survive the termination of a Contract.

4. Delivery

- 4.1 Time, as regards delivery to or despatch to the Purchaser, will not be regarded as being of the "essence". The Company whilst making every effort to adhere to dates of despatch or delivery does not guarantee such dates of despatch and/or delivery. The date quoted for delivery or despatch is indicative only and shall be extended by a reasonable time if delay is caused due to any industrial action or any event beyond the control of the Company (including, without limitation, those events set out in clause 8). The Purchaser may not reject Goods/Products and/or Items due to late despatch or delivery of such Goods, Products or Items. Where an order is being delivered in instalments late delivery of any one instalment shall not entitle the Purchaser to terminate the Contract or to treat the Contract as repudiated.
- 4.2 If the Purchaser fails to take delivery of the Goods, Products or Items or fails to give the Seller adequate delivery instructions at the time stated for delivery (otherwise than by reason of any cause beyond the Purchaser's reasonable control or by reason of the Company's fault) then without prejudice to any other right or remedy available to the Company, the Company may:
- (a) store the Goods, Products or Items until actual delivery and charge the Purchaser for the reasonable costs (including insurance) of storage and re-delivery; or
 - (b) sell the Goods, Products or Items at the best price readily obtainable and (after deducting all reasonable storage and selling expenses) charge the Purchaser for any shortfall below the price due under the Contract.
- 4.3 Unless otherwise agreed in writing delivery of Supplies will be made in industry standard packaging.

5. Price and Payment

- 5.1 The price of the Goods, Products or Items shall be as quoted by the Company to the Purchaser.
- 5.2 The Company may increase the price quoted for Goods, Products and/or Items by giving notice to the Purchaser before delivery to reflect any increases of prices due to: (a) any reasons beyond its control including, without limitation, increased prices charged by Third Party Manufacturers, increased manufacturing costs, increased delivery costs, foreign exchange fluctuations and increases in taxes and duties; (b) any request by the Purchaser to change the delivery date(s), quantities, types or specifications of Goods, Products or Items ordered; or (c) any delay caused by any instructions of the Purchaser or failure of the Purchaser to give the Company adequate or accurate information or instructions.
- 5.3 All prices quoted by the Company shall be FCA GTS Flexible Materials Limited, Ebbw Vale (Incoterms 2010) unless otherwise agreed in writing and exclusive of Value Added Tax and the Purchaser shall pay all Value Added Tax due in addition to the price due under a Contract on receipt of a Value Added Tax Invoice from the Company.
- 5.4 Unless otherwise agreed by the Company in writing the Purchaser shall pay the price of the Goods, Products and/or Items not later than the end of the calendar month following the date of the invoice relating to the Goods, Products and/or Items. All payments by the Purchaser shall be made in full in cleared funds without deduction in respect of any set-off or counterclaim. The Company may at any time, without limiting any other rights or remedies it may have, set off any amount owing to it by the Purchaser against any amount payable by the Company to the Purchaser.

- 5.5 Time as regards the payment of the price will be of the “essence” as to a Contract to which these Terms and Conditions apply. The Purchaser’s failure to pay the price in accordance with the Contract will allow the Company to suspend all future deliveries or despatches to the Purchaser, to refuse to accept any further orders, to charge interest in accordance with clause 5.6 until such times as the said payment is made in accordance with these Terms and Conditions and to obtain compensation from the Purchaser for reasonable debt recovery.
- 5.6 Interest at the rate of 8% above Bank of England base rate will be payable by the Purchaser on outstanding balances not paid by the due date.
- 5.7 In the event that in the reasonable opinion of the Company there is a risk that the Purchaser is unable to make payments as they fall due, the Company shall be entitled to suspend delivery of Supplies and make further delivery only if the Purchaser makes a payment upfront or offers security including without limitation third party guarantees or legal charges on terms reasonably acceptable to the Company.

6 Risk and Title

- 6.1 Risk of damage to or loss of the Goods, Products or Items (for the purpose of this clause collectively referred to as the Supplies) shall pass to the Purchaser:
- (a) in the case of Supplies to be delivered at the Company's premises, at the time when the Company notifies the Purchaser that the Supplies are available for collection; or
- (b) in the case of Supplies to be delivered otherwise than at the Company's premises, at the time of delivery or, if the Purchaser wrongfully fails to take delivery of the Supplies, the time when the Company has tendered delivery of the Supplies.
- 6.2 Notwithstanding delivery and the passing of risk in the Supplies, or any other provision of these Terms and Conditions, title in the Supplies shall not pass to the Purchaser until the Company has received in cash or cleared funds payment in full of the price of the Supplies and all other goods agreed to be sold by the Company to the Purchaser for which payment is then due.
- 6.3 Until such time as title in the Supplies passes to the Purchaser, the Purchaser shall hold the Supplies as the Company's fiduciary agent and bailee, and shall keep the Supplies separate from those of the Purchaser and third parties and properly stored, protected, insured (against all risks for their full price) and identified as the Company's property.
- 6.4 Until such time as title in the Supplies passes to the Purchaser (and provided that the Supplies are still in existence and have not been resold by the Purchaser in the ordinary course of its business) the Company shall be entitled (without prejudice to any other rights it may have) at any time to require the Purchaser to deliver up the Supplies to the Company and, if the Purchaser fails to do so forthwith, to enter upon any premises of the Purchaser where the Supplies are stored and repossess the Supplies and to require the Purchaser to do everything reasonably practicable to ensure recovery of the Supplies from any other premises in which they are situated.

- 6.5 Until such time as title in the Supplies passes to the Purchaser, the Purchaser shall be entitled to resell the Supplies in the ordinary course of its business unless the Company revokes this permission which it may do at any time and provided that the Purchaser does so in the normal course of business and at a price which constitutes the full market value of the Supplies and provided that the Purchaser holds in a fiduciary capacity from the proceeds of sale or otherwise of the Supplies the Company's Proceeds (which means a sum equal to the purchase price of the Supplies under the Contract) and keeps the Company's Proceeds separate from any monies or property of the Purchaser and third parties in a separate bank account clearly denoted as an account containing monies deposited for the benefit of the Company and, in the case of tangible proceeds, properly stored, protected and insured.
- 6.6 Until such time as title in the Supplies passes to the Purchaser the Company permits the Purchaser to use the Supplies in the ordinary course of its business provided that such permission may be revoked at any time by the Company and if such use of the Supplies involves the Supplies being incorporated into, combined with or used in the process of creating or manufacturing other goods or items, upon the creation of such other goods or items the Company shall be the legal owner of such other goods or items jointly with the Purchaser and any other suppliers of goods used in such process and beneficial owner of such other goods or items jointly with the Purchaser and such other suppliers (if any) in such proportion as the purchase price of the Supplies under the Contract bears to the overall cost of production of such other goods or items and the Purchaser shall hold such other goods or items as the Company's fiduciary agent and bailee and the foregoing paragraphs of this clause 6 (as applicable) shall apply to such other goods or items.
- 6.7 The Company shall be entitled, where the Supplies have become fixed or attached to or incorporated within any other products ("Assembled Goods") to detach the Supplies from such Assembled Goods.
- 6.8 The provisions set out here shall be without prejudice to the obligation of the Purchaser to purchase and pay for the Supplies.
- 6.9 The Purchaser shall not be entitled to pledge or in any way charge by way of security for any indebtedness any of the Supplies which remain the property of the Company, but if the Purchaser does so all monies owing by the Purchaser to the Company shall (without prejudice to any other right or remedy of the Company) forthwith become due and payable.
- 6.10 If delivery is made to jurisdictions in which the provisions of this clause do not have the same effect as in England and Wales or where they are held to be unlawful or unenforceable the Purchaser must use its best efforts to ensure that the Company is put in a position which is as similar as reasonably possible to that afforded by the provisions of this clause 6. If any retention of title clauses require registration in order to be enforceable the Purchaser shall procure that the relevant Contract and this clause 6 is registered.

7. Publicity Material and Intellectual Property Rights

- 7.1 All drawings, photographs, illustrations, data sheets and descriptive material accompanying the Company's quotations or contained in any brochure or advertising matter issued by the Company are intended only to represent the general idea of the Goods and/or Products and/or Items described therein and shall not form part of the Contract and shall be treated as approximate and for guidance only unless the Company expressly states in writing otherwise. The Company shall not be liable for any divergence between the Goods and/or Products and/or Items and such drawings, photographs, illustrations or descriptive material. Further the Company reserves expressly the right to vary or modify in any way as appears to it to be reasonable, any part or method of construction of the Goods and/or Products without notice.
- 7.2 The Goods, Products and / or Items may include designs which are the property of the Company ("the Designs"). The Company owns the Intellectual Property Rights in any of the items listed in clause 7.1 and the Designs unless otherwise agreed in writing with the Purchaser. Title to such Intellectual Property Rights and the Designs shall not pass to the Purchaser and shall remain with the Company at all times.
- 7.3 The Purchaser agrees that the Designs may not be reproduced or used in any way except with the prior written consent of the Company.
- 7.4 The Company has not knowingly infringed any intellectual property rights of any third party but does not warrant or give any assurance to the Purchaser that any Design does not infringe the intellectual property rights of any third party.
- 7.5 The Purchaser confirms and warrants that it does not infringe the Intellectual Property Rights owned by or vested in a third party in sending the Specification to the Company and/or requiring the Company to produce the Supplies to such Specification.

8 Force Majeure

The Company must not be liable to the Purchaser or be deemed to be in breach of Contract by reason of any delay, prevention or curtailment in the performance of the Contract by reason of circumstances beyond the control of the Company including (but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) war, political dispute, riots, fire, flood, accident, difficulties in obtaining raw materials, transportation, labour, fuel, parts or machinery, strikes, lockouts or other industrial disputes whether involving the third parties or the Company and its own employees. For the avoidance of doubt and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, in the event of such circumstances causing delays in delivery of Supplies the Purchaser shall not be entitled to terminate the Contract.

9 Indemnity

The Purchaser shall indemnify and keep the Company indemnified against all costs, expenses, damages and demands incurred by the Company in respect of:

- (a) any alleged infringement of any third party patents, trademarks, copyright, design or other industrial property rights by the Company arising out of any request of, or pursuant to any instruction of, the Purchaser in connection with the Contract including without limitation the Specification;

- (b) any alleged breach or infringement of any statute or regulation concerning the preparation, marketing and distribution of the Goods, Products or Items arising pursuant to any specific instruction of the Purchaser in connection with the Contract; and
- (c) any claims arising and made under the Consumer Protection Act 1987 and which arise by reason of or in connection with a defect in the Goods, Products or Items or in the end product manufactured and/or supplied by the Purchaser in which the Goods, Products or Items are comprised, which defect is attributable either to the compliance by the Company with the instructions given by the Purchaser including without limitation the Specification or attributable to the Purchaser's design of the end product or the combination of the Goods, Products or Items with other products or the use of the end product.

10 Insolvency of Purchaser

10.1 This Clause applies if:

- (a) the Purchaser makes any voluntary arrangement with its creditors or makes a proposal for or enters into any compromise or arrangement with its creditors or becomes subject to an administration order or (being an individual or firm) becomes bankrupt or (being a company) goes into liquidation or a petition is filed, a notice is given, a resolution is passed, or an order is made, for or in connection with its winding up (otherwise than for the purpose of a solvent amalgamation or reconstruction);
- (b) an encumbrancer takes possession, or a receiver is appointed, over any of the property or assets of the Purchaser;
- (c) the Purchaser ceases, or threatens to cease, to carry on all or substantially the whole of its business;
- (d) the Purchaser suspends, or threatens to suspend, payment of its debts, or is unable to pay its debts as they fall due or admits inability to pay its debts, or (being a company) is deemed unable to pay its debts within the meaning of section 123 of the Insolvency Act 1986, or (being an individual) is deemed either unable to pay its debts or as having no reasonable prospect of so doing, in either case, within the meaning of section 268 of the Insolvency Act 1986, or (being a partnership) has any partner to whom any of the foregoing apply;
- (e) a creditor or encumbrancer of the Purchaser attaches or takes possession of, or a distress, execution, sequestration or other such process is levied or enforced on or sued against, the whole or any part of its assets and such attachment or process is not discharged within 14 days;
- (f) a person becomes entitled to appoint a receiver over the Purchaser's assets or a receiver is appointed over the Purchaser's assets;
- (g) any event occurs, or proceeding is taken, with respect to the Purchaser in any jurisdiction to which it is subject that has an effect equivalent or similar to any of the events mentioned in clause 10.1 (a) to (f) (inclusive);

- (h) the Purchaser's financial position deteriorates to such an extent that in the Company's opinion the Purchaser's capability to adequately fulfil its obligations under the Contract has been placed in jeopardy; or
 - (i) the Company reasonably apprehends that any of the events mentioned above is about to occur in relation to the Purchaser and notifies the Purchaser accordingly.
- 10.2 If this clause applies then, without prejudice to any other right or remedy available to the Company, the Company shall be entitled to cancel the Contract or suspend any further deliveries under the Contract without liability to the Purchaser, and if the Goods, Products or Items have been delivered but not paid for, then without prejudice to the Company's rights under clause 6 the price shall become immediately due and payable notwithstanding any previous agreement or arrangement to the contrary. Termination of the Contract, however arising, shall not affect any of the parties' rights and remedies that have accrued as at termination. Clauses which expressly or by implication survive termination of the Contract shall continue in full force and effect.

11. Anti-bribery

- 11.1 For the purposes of this clause 11 (anti-bribery) the expressions adequate procedures and associated with shall be construed in accordance with the Bribery Act 2010 and legislation or guidance published under it.
- 11.2 Each party shall comply with applicable Bribery Laws including ensuring that it has in place adequate procedures to prevent bribery and ensure that all of that party's personnel, all others associated with that party; and all of that party's subcontractors involved in the performance of the Contract so comply.
- 11.3 Without limitation to clause 11.2, neither party shall make or receive any bribe (as defined in the Bribery Act 2010) or other improper payment, or allow any such to be made or received on its behalf, either in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, and shall implement and maintain adequate procedures to ensure that such bribes or payments are not made or received directly or indirectly on its behalf.
- 11.4 Each party shall immediately notify the other as soon as it becomes aware of a breach or possible breach of any of the requirements in this clause 19 (Anti-bribery).

12 Quality and Audit

- 12.1 The Company shall supply upon reasonable request such quality control and test results as the Purchaser may reasonably require on the understanding that the Company carries out sample testing only.
- 12.2 The Company shall allow the Purchaser at any time upon reasonable notice and upon reasonable grounds to visit the Company's premises and carry out an audit of the Company's test procedures in order to ensure compliance with Legislation.

13 General

- 13.1 (a) Either party may, in whole or in part, release, compound, compromise, waive or postpone, in its absolute discretion, any liability owed to it or right granted to it under the Contract by the other party without in any way prejudicing or affecting its rights in respect of any other liability or right not so released, compounded, compromised, waived or postponed.

- (b) No single or partial exercise or failure or delay in exercising any right, power or remedy by either party shall constitute a waiver by that party of, or impair or preclude any further exercise of that or any right, power or remedy arising under the Contract or otherwise.
- 13.2 To the extent that any provision of these Terms and Conditions is found by any court or competent authority to be invalid, unlawful or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, that provision shall be deemed not to be a part of these Terms and Conditions, it shall not affect the enforceability of the remainder of these Terms and Conditions nor shall it affect the validity, lawfulness or enforceability of that provision in any other jurisdiction.
- 13.3 Any reference in these Terms and Conditions to any provision of a statute shall be construed as a reference to that provision as amended, re-enacted or extended at the relevant time.
- 13.4 The headings in these Terms and Conditions are for convenience only and shall not affect their interpretation.
- 13.5 These Terms and Conditions and the documents referred to in them set out the entire agreement and understanding between the parties and supersede all prior agreements, understandings or arrangements (whether oral or written) in respect of the subject matter of a Contract.
- 13.6 No term of these Terms and Conditions is enforceable pursuant to the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 by any person who is not a party to it.
- 13.7 The Contract shall be subject to and construed in accordance with English Law and all disputes of whatsoever kind arising as a result of the making or performance (including any alleged non-performance) of the Contract shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of England and Wales.
- 13.8 The Company and the Purchaser shall use reasonable endeavours to solve all disputes between themselves and the Company may (at its sole discretion) take all actions it considers necessary to resolve such disputes.
- 13.9 Other than specified in and permitted by clause 2.4, communications made and notices given by the Company to the Purchaser and vice versa, shall be either delivered personally or sent by first class post to the parties respective addresses as may be from time to time notified by one party to the other.
- Any communication or notice from the Company to the Purchaser shall be conclusively deemed to be served and received by the Purchaser within 48 hours after posting in the case of an address in the United Kingdom and 96 hours after posting for any other address.
- 13.10 Any reference to the Purchaser's material description or code, for items on Supplier's documentation, is considered to be an assistance to the Purchaser's administration system and in no way indicates a responsibility to ensure that the material complies with the Buyer's internal codes and local material specifications.
- 13.11 The Company with prior agreement with the Purchaser reserves the right to send documentation electronically.

13.12 The Company may at any time assign, transfer, charge, subcontract or deal in any other manner with all or any of its rights or obligations under the Contract. The Purchaser may not assign, transfer, charge, subcontract or deal in any other manner with all or any of its rights or obligations under the Contract without the prior written consent of the Company.
